District council defers £640,000 decision on broadband roll-out

SOUTH Somerset District Council (SSDC) has demanded proof that there is value for money before giving £640,000 towards a superfast broadband project.

In a meeting held behind closed doors last Thursday, SSDC District Executive resolved to defer a grant of £640,000 towards the Connecting Devon Somerset

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

(CDS) Superfast Extension Programme pending "a satisfactory and detailed assessment from which it is clear that it [the project] is favourable and beneficial to businesses in South Somerset".

It has also requested "a satisfactory partnering agreement and governance arrangement to ensure that SSDC is fully engaged and involved in the delivery of superfast broadband", and "evidence that a satisfactory return can be guaranteed from the investment".

Councillor Ric Pallister, leader of SSDC said: "Our offer is on the table and it is a firm offer because we recognise the importance of the programme to our businesses and residents.

"However, until we receive the details required it would be inappropriate for this council to proceed.

"We must ensure that there is a clear demonstration of value for money for the residents of South Somerset."

The meeting was held behind closed doors because it involved commercially sensitive information, but afterwards SSDC issued a statement saying: "The current programme is being delivered as a joint partnership of the following organisations that operate through a collaboration agreement across the partner organisation: Somerset and Devon County Councils, Torbay Council, Bath and North East Somerset and North Somerset Council.

"Somerset County Council is the accountable body."

The superfast broadband programme takes advantage of various UK and European funding streams, and involves a number of organisations and agencies, including the government-funded Broadband Delivery UK (BDUK).

By the end of 2015, 90 per cent of premises in South Somerset will be able to gain access to superfast broadband as a result of the initial superfast broadband programme. CDS, the programme organisers, aims to increase the availability of superfast broadband to 95 per cent of South Somerset premises under the Superfast Extension Programme.

SSDC agreed an in-principle commitment in June last year to commit £640,000 but has since struggled to get what it deems to be "crucial information". For example, there has been concern that business premises are not specifically targeted for connection.

SSDC has asked for the postcode breakdown of premises expected to be connected, but was told it could not share the information, if received, because of commercial confidentiality.

District Executive members have also been told by officers that "it is not possible to get competitive like-for-like quotes in the prevailing circumstances". The impact on the programme as a whole by SSDC's deferral is unclear.

Somerset County Council had not replied to a request for comment at the time of going to press.

Plans for new £2m college arts centre

THE expansion of Axe Valley Community College will take another step forward if plans for a £2 million arts centre are approved.

Devon County Council, which is funding the project through the Capital Maintenance Programme, has applied for planning permission.

If successful, construction is estimated to start in spring 2016 – with completion in September 2016.

The design comprises six state-of-the-art teaching rooms, which include two drama studios, two art studios, a digital art studio and a general-purpose classroom.

The new arts centre would replace a cluster of temporary classrooms, located on the west side of the campus parallel to Lyme Road.

An additional £500,000 has also been awarded to the college to improve the science and music blocks.

These improvements will include new roofing, windows, heating and flooring.

Headteacher Martin Smith commented: "This is an outstanding opportunity for the college. The new arts centre will provide inspiring facilities that allow the art and drama departments to expand the range of opportunities available to students.

"The arts at Axe Valley play a key role in our curriculum, with students studying both subjects from Year Seven.

"These specialised facilities give learners the best opportunities to develop their creative skills, and provide students studying GCSE and A-level access to more technically advanced resources."

From the editor's chair Gaynor's shock goodbye

THE resignation of former Seaton Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick from Seaton Town Council, with immediate effect, came as a surprise.

However, I am told that Gaynor had been considering her position since being ousted at the recent annual meeting by former journalist Tony Woodman whom I rather rashly – and perhaps unfairly – referred to as "a rebel councillor" when we reported his elevation to the town's First Citizenship.

In the early days when Councillor Woodman got on the Town Council there seemed a good deal of animosity between the two but as the months passed they were sensible enough to treat each other with a degree of respect.

And Tony Woodman has been big enough to praise Gaynor for her contribution to the life of Seaton, saying she had done much for the town during her term of office. Which, indeed, she had.

I covered the annual town meeting a couple of years ago when the audience were baying for Gaynor's blood after she got herself embroiled in an unfortunate spat with Seaton's disabled community.

It was one of the most vitriolic public meetings I had ever covered – and I've witnessed a few – and I wondered whether she could possibly continue in the role of mayor.

But she weathered the storm and whilst there was definitely a section of the Seaton community who wanted her ousted, I believe she performed her mayoral duties with great dignity and huge enthusiasm, never failing to promote the town and extol its virtues.

The role of town mayor is not an easy one. I know, I've been there in my home town. Overall, I think Gaynor did a good job and Tony knows he has big shoes to fill.

HONITON

Three week wait for your wheelie bin to be emptied

COUNCIL chiefs are considering changes to rubbish collection services that could leave residents waiting three weeks for their bins to be picked up.

A new scheme designed to boost recycling rates will be trialled in parts of East Devon this autumn and could be rolled out to Honiton in the future.

The short-term service, for around 1,800 households in Feniton and Exmouth, will see cardboard and mixed plastics picked up from the doorstep on a weekly basis.

But as part of the scheme, residents' wheelie bins will be collected every three weeks, instead of fortnightly. Weekly food waste collections will continue as normal.

SIDMOUTH

Public meeting to be held over beach huts

FURIOUS residents will have their say on proposals to auction off Sidmouth's beach huts at a public meeting in the town.

A full house is expected at next week's meeting, organised by the Vision Group for Sidmouth.

The event will provide a platform for angry residents to voice their concerns before East Devon District Council's public consultation closes in less than a fortnight's time.

The council currently owns 24 beach huts at Jacob's Ladder, which are hired out every year at a cost of £625 each.

Under the current rules, individuals can renew their hire agreements each year, creating huge waiting lists for the sought-after huts.

Now EDDC is planning to auction off the facilities, with existing leases scrapped and new five-year hire agreements sold to the highest bidders. The plans have so far proved unpopular with current tenants, some of whom have hired out their huts for many years.

Organisers of the Save East Devon Beach Huts campaign, which is also fighting the proposals in Budleigh Salterton, Exmouth, Seaton and Beer, say they have been "overwhelmed" by the response from members of the public.

SOUTH SOMERSET

Broadband grant deferred

SOUTH Somerset District Council (SSDC) has demanded proof that there is value for money before giving £640,000 towards a superfast broadband project.

In a meeting held behind closed doors last Thursday, SSDC District Executive resolved to defer a grant of £640,000 towards the Connecting Devon Somerset (CDS) Superfast Extension Programme pending "a satisfactory and detailed assessment from which it is clear that it [the project] is favourable and beneficial to businesses in South Somerset".

OTTERY ST MARY 'Hands tied' over St Saviours deal

CIVIC leaders in Ottery St Mary have abandoned plans to convert the former social services building at St Saviours into a community hub, after talks with Devon County Council finally broke down.

Town councillors decided to withdraw from the negotiations last week, following six months of meetings.

They had hoped to reach an agreement to take over the redundant building and create a new home for Ottery's threatened library, while renting out the remaining office space.

But it now looks likely that the site will be sold on the open market, after the two parties failed to strike a deal.

SEATON

Ex-mayor resigns

FORMER Seaton Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick has resigned from the town council with immediate effect. Having served on the council for four years, Councillor Sedgwick was re-elected in May.

She had served as mayor for the last two years and had hoped to keep that role, but was ousted by Councillor Tony Woodman.

She told Pulman's View: "I feel I have done my four years and that I have done a good job, and I now want to do something different and have a new start.

Paying tribute to Mrs Sedgwick, Cllr Woodman said: "She did a lot of good work for the town, and I wish her well for the future."

Students mark 800 years of Magna Carta

■ CHARD School history students are studying and celebrating 800 years of Magna Carta. A school spokesperson explained: "They have access to a copy of Magna Carta including a full translation. This document became the cornerstone of modern democracy forming the basic constitutional law of both Britain and America." The school itself is blessed with a long history; built in 1583 for wealthy merchant John Symes, the house was donated to the town of Chard as a grammar school in 1671. Powrmatic's Tim wins apprentice award

ILMINSTER company Powrmatic has been celebrating after one of its apprentices was named as the ICOM Energy Association's 2015 Apprentice of the Year.

Tom Case beat off strong competition to take the title and he received his award from polar explorer Alan Chambers at the association's annual lunch.

Tom, 22, has recently completed a two-year apprenticeship with Powrmatic in fabrication and welding.

"I am delighted to have won this award and would like to express my gratitude to both Powrmatic for its support and ICOM for its recognition," he said.

Powrmatic's managing director Phil Brompton added: "Tom has made a strong impression on us all since he joined the company and has proved to be a valuable addition to our workforce. I congratulate him on this very well-deserved achievement."

Tom joined Powrmatic under the company's ongoing apprenticeship programme, which will be recruiting a further two apprentices during 2015.

Marie Curie looking for new helpers

THE Marie Curie charity is looking for new volunteers to join its Helper Service in Somerset, which provides support and companionship to those with a terminal illnesses in their own home.

Marie Curie Helpers give around three hours a week of their time, offering a friendly ear and the opportunity to talk through any worries.

Volunteers also help by providing practical support, such as making a cup of tea, providing information about local services or by enabling carers and family members to take a short break.

Two introductory sessions will take place on Friday, July 3rd at Shepton Mallet Fire Station, and Friday, July 10th at Monks Yard in Ilminster, giving anyone interested in becoming a Marie Curie Helper volunteer the chance to find out more about the service. The charity also provides on-going support and previous medical experience is not necessary.

Both introductory sessions will take place between 9am and 11am.

Manager of the Marie Curie Helper service in Somerset, Kathy Holland, said: "The Marie Curie Helper service can provide a lifeline for people with terminal illnesses and their families, at what can be a very difficult and stressful time.

"We are looking for people who would be interested in volunteering as a Marie Curie Helper, to provide support for someone living with a terminal illness and ease some of the strain on them and their families.

"Our volunteers find this a very rewarding and fulfilling role and we'd urge anyone who thinks they may be able to volunteer to get in touch."

If attendees decide to commit to becoming a helper volunteer they will be invited to attend two training days. For those who attend the Shepton Mallet introductory session, this will be on July 6th and 7th and dates for those attending the Ilminster introductory session are yet to be confirmed.

To find out more about becoming a Marie Curie Helper call 0845 303 2777 or email bristol-helper@mariecurie.org.uk

Spate in 'cold hearted' rustling crimes across area launches police enquiries

POLICE are investigating a series of rustling crimes across South Somerset, which has led to nearly 500 animals being stolen within six weeks and the possibility of their meat entering the market illegally.

Rustlers have been targeting lambs and their mothers in a spike in cases shortly before farmers would probably have been sending the lambs to market or slaughter.

Among the catalogue of crimes are incidents in Langport, Yeovil, South Petherton, Stoke-sub-Hamdon and Ilchester.

At least 480 lambs, ewes and rams were stolen between May 12th and June 18th, costing some farmers £10,000 or even more in a single raid.

The thefts could have been carried out "to order", or the animals are being given new identities and then sold or sent to slaughter by the thieves.

Last week near Langport, 150 ewes and lambs were loaded into a waiting trailer after the flock had been moved into another field in the middle of the night. The estimated value is about £30,000.

Livestock trucks and trailers have also been stolen in separate raids.

In the most recent related incident on Tuesday, June 23rd, two men were disturbed while trying to steal a trailer from a farm near Yeovil.

Two cows have also been stolen from a shed, and, as yet, none of the animals stolen in this series have been recovered.

Sergeant Stuart Williams, of the Rural Crime Team said: "Anyone involved in this crime, whether they are buying animals they know are stolen or their meat, is helping destroy honest businesses and lining the pockets of criminals.

"All the thefts are being investigated, and our units are stopping and checking vehicles capable of carrying livestock day and night to check tags and paperwork."

As well as the roadside checks, we've been sharing information with the farming community through our 2,860-member Farm Watch, as well as with counterparts in neighbouring forces, abattoirs and markets across the country to try finding the stolen sheep.

"There is a possibility that the sheep are being re-tagged and sold or slaughtered seemingly legitimately without raising any alarm. Many lambs have been untagged when stolen because regulations do not demand they are until reaching a certain age or are leaving the farm."

Supt Geoff Wessel, the force's lead officer for rural crime, added: "This isn't a new crime trend we're experiencing, there are reports of rustling throughout the year, but this is an unusual level of activity.

"No one should be in any doubt as to the seriousness of rustling in relation to the impact it has on farming, and the involvement of organised crime groups.

"Whoever is doing this is determined and well organised with a good knowledge of animal handling as well as the means to store or dispose of the animals they've stolen without anyone noticing, or giving them new identities and passing them off as their own."

Also stolen in this series have been 21 pedigree rams worth £10,000, but with a value far greater than that when taking into account their breeding potential.

A victim who asked not to be identified said: "It's sickening what these mindless thieves do. The sheep have probably suffered in transit and not been killed humanely either.

"Farming is not an easy job; for us it is seven days a week, and during the lambing season we can work up to 20 hours a day to make sure we save the lives of new-born lambs. To see all that cruelly taken from you makes you feel like giving it all up.

"We now have to drive round every day, with our hearts in our mouths, wondering what has been stolen overnight. All we are trying to do is an honest day's work to put food on the plates of the British public, so why should we have to live in fear of these cruel, cold-hearted people."

Sergeant Williams added: "We have been encouraging our farmers to take all the security measures they reasonably can, so while the thieves remain at large I ask anyone with information to call the Rural Crime Team on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, and to report any suspicious activity immediately. If a crime is in progress or the offenders are still nearby, please call 999."

Recent livestock thefts and associated incidents have included the following:

On or around May 13th - 21 Charollais breeding rams, Radstock; overnight May on 25th-26th - 48 sheep, Stoke-sub-Hamdon; early hours of May 28th - cattle lorry, East Huntspill (later found burnt out in Langport on June 4th); overnight May 29th-30th - 49 Charollais ewes and 77 lambs, Baltonsborough; overnight June 3rd-4th - 28 North Country Mule ewes and 13 lambs, Yeovil; overnight June 3rd-4th - 27

Lley ewes and 23 lambs, Yeovil; overnight June 4th-5th - seven lambs, Rodney Stoke; overnight June 7th-8th - Ifor Williams trailer, Sparkford; overnight June 7th-8th - two Hereford cows, Ilchester; overnight June 7th-8th - 26 Lley sheep, South Petherton; overnight June 8th-9th - 25-30 lambs, East Huntspill; overnight June 17th-18th - 90 ewes and 50 lambs, Langport; June 21st - four sheep's skins found blocking a land drain, Glastonbury; June 23rd - two men disturbed trying to steal a livestock trailer, Yeovil.

New equipment to cut hospital waiting times

PATIENTS at Yeovil Hospital are set to benefit from reduced waiting times for a CT scan - thanks to a successful fundraising campaign for a second scanner.

The state-of-the-art machine is now in place, thanks to a fundraising campaign to raise the initial funds needed for a second scanner for the hospital's radiology department.

Until recently, patients had to wait for a scan if the existing scanner was in use, or being serviced.

The new scanner is being opened at an official ceremony on Wednesday, July 1st by ex-BBC chief news correspondent Kate Adie.

According to medical director Tim Scull, the scanner is set to make a huge difference to patients: "We did 10,000 CT scans last year alone and our existing CT scanner is in constant use by stroke, cancer and trauma patients in particular. We wanted to make sure that patients had the least possible wait for a scan in what can often be a stressful time, and to make sure that there is always a scanner available for patients who need it."

Dr Katalin Fernando, consultant in the emergency department, agrees: "For time-critical emergencies like major trauma and stroke thrombolysis, immediate availability of a CT scanner is essential. A second one will minimise any disruption and delay, meaning that we can make quicker decisions and start treatment earlier."

The hospital has received considerable public support for the fundraising campaign.

"Our patients and the wider community have been extremely generous and raised the initial £150,000 we needed in just six months," said Dr Scull.

"However, the true cost to the hospital is much higher than that, and we would like to buy certain add-ons to the scanner if we can raise enough money so fundraising efforts continue.

"We'd particularly like to thank the Friends of Yeovil Hospital, Friends of South Petherton Hospital and the Kay Kendall Leukaemia Fund, without whose help our appeal would have taken a lot longer. We are truly grateful."

Chard Community Day

THE annual Chard Community Day - organised by the youth Streetspace group - will be held on Saturday, July 11th at the Chard Skatepark.

There will be free entry to the event at Henson Park which will run from 10am to 6pm.

Among the attractions will be a barbecue, stalls and bushcraft activities, as well as a bouncy castle, obstacle course and sumo wrestling.

There will be live music, while there will be plenty of thrills and spills with skateboarding, BMX and scooter riding and inline skating.

Mad Hatters at animal sanctuary

FERNE Animal Sanctuary recently celebrated National Volunteers Week with a Mad Hatter's Tea Party for all its helpers.

Volunteer Gemma Beaton and volunteer co-ordinator Amanda Thornton hosted the party at the sanctuary's site in Wambrook, near Chard.

Amanda said: "The Mad Hatters Tea Party was a celebratory event to say a massive thank you to all our fantastic volunteers. What better way to mark their dedication and generosity than to take them on a slightly bizarre adventure to Wonderland!"

"It was a fantastic event, beautifully planned out with a full cast of Wonderland characters from Alice to the Sleepy Dormouse, all played by members of staff and a few willing volunteers."

"The function room was gloriously decorated and laid out with teacups and cupcakes. There were quotes from the book all over the tables and playing card bunting in abundance making everyone truly believe they had fallen down the rabbit's hole."

"Most of the volunteers turned up with crazy hats. Best hat was awarded to Mo Cunnold from Chard for a fantastic teapot and tea cosy construction precariously perched upon his noggin!"

Many volunteers entered their homemade cakes into the Great Wonderland Bake Off, judged by none other than Mary Berry, played by Anne Richards, and Paul Hollywood, played by Paul Strawbridge, Ferne Animal Sanctuary's estates manager.

IN WONDERLAND: Debbie Smith, Ann Richards, Jackie Deeming, Holly Pearson-Wort, Amanda Thornton and Gemma Beaton

Winners of the bake off were Emily Roberts and Jenny Broadly from Chard, with the group Sweet Surprise taking home the prestigious award of Star Bakers.

The tea party was swiftly followed with croquet in the sunshine. The lawn was laid out with a croquet circuit and a crazy croquet set, provided by top-notch players, Stephen Custance-Baker, from Taunton Dean Croquet Club, with help from Sue and Alan Lyn, from Dowlsh Wake Croquet Club.

"Everyone agreed that trying to get the ball into the bucket in the crazy croquet was harder than first thought, although highly entertaining," said Amanda.

"Nobody wanted to win though, as the Queen of Hearts (Elaine Hayes, Ferne Animal Sanctuary's CEO) was playing and would probably have been less than impressed."

"There was, however, a tasty bottle of wine for the winner, Vicki Yellowley from Lyme Regis. She happily reports that she was not harmed by 'Her Majesty'!"

"We must thank Recycling In Ottery for kindly lending us crockery, all the volunteers, croquet tutors and everyone who pitched in or donated their time and teapots in order to make this event possible."

"The party was a massive success. We hope to see our volunteers around the same time next year for another fabulous event."

Ferne makes plea for new homes for cats

FERNE Animal Sanctuary in Wambrook, near Chard, is overrun with cats and kittens and has issued a plea for people to come forward to provide homes for them.

Rehoming manager Tara Nirula said: "Some have been at the sanctuary for months now and are beginning to show signs of stress."

"Riley (pictured) was brought into Ferne as a stray a month ago in a dreadful condition and very thin. He has a deformed ear which the vet believes is the result of a bad ear infection that was not treated at the time, but this does not cause any problems now."

"We think he is about five years old and at some point in his life must have been a loved pet as he is very friendly and affectionate - and will give kisses on command!"

"Over the past few months we have had eight stray cats brought in, including a heavily pregnant cat that gave birth to her kittens two days later. We've also had a three week old kitten that was hand reared. And there are more kittens on the way."

"Many of the stray cats were in a bad way with skin conditions, eye and ear infections and all quite emaciated."

"After having veterinary treatment, regular feeding and lots of care from the sanctuary staff, they have all developed into happy, healthy, friendly cats who love human attention; some are still a little timid but are gaining in confidence every day."

"We are urgently looking for loving homes with special people who can give these cats and kittens a second chance in life. The owners must have patience and commitment but most of all, lots of love to give."

Anyone who can help should call the Sanctuary on 01460 65214 or email animalcare@ferneanimal-sanctuary.org

Ferne Animal Sanctuary is a registered charity open to the public all year round, except Christmas Day and New Year's Day. It relies solely on donations and urgently needs more volunteers.

To learn about volunteering or upcoming events for the sanctuary, visit the website www.ferneanimal-sanctuary.org or call 01460 65214.

Rotary Club sponsors Quad Kids tournament

THE Rotary Club of Chard once again sponsored the annual Quad Kids Athletics competition at Holyrood Academy on Wednesday of last week. Under the chairmanship of Rotarian Gerald Bray, ably assisted by a number of fellow members and their partners, a total of 13 schools took part. These included All Saints, Ashill, Avishayes, Buckland St Mary, Chard School, Combe St Nicholas, Greenfylde, Manor Court, Neroche, Redstart, Swanmead, Tatworth and Thorncombe. In total 141 competitors took part in the four classes. The overall winning school with 2,079 points was Redstart School, followed by Tatworth and in third place All Saints. The prizewinners were presented with their awards by the Rotary District Governor Judy Barnard Jones in the presence of the Mayor of Chard, Councillor Bulmer.

Classic car show at Forde Abbey's annual summer fair

ONE of the highlights of the annual summer fair in the award-winning gardens of Forde Abbey, founded by Cistercian monks over 800 years ago, will be the 150 classic cars on show.

Coming from all over the West Country, they will range from a 1912 Rolls Royce Silver Ghost, a 1936 Morris 8 Tourer and a fully restored 1941 Ford Willys GPW jeep to a 1953 Aston Martin DB2, a 1960 Jaguar XK150 and a 1985 Dax Cobra V8.

Also on show at the fair on Thursday, July 30th will be a car that may look familiar to visitors, a Daimler Dart SP250 from 1960. With a 2.5 litre v8 engine, a similar car was used in the introduction to BBC's "Antiques Roadshow" until recently.

There will also be the first customer Morgan with a V6 engine, a Ford Mustang 4.7 litre V8 which has been in the same family since bought new in 1966, and an MGTC known as 'Alice' which has recently returned from Guernsey where it took part in the 70th Anniversary Liberation Parade. It was originally sold in 1947 for £527-16s-8d (including purchase tax!).

A Daimler 15 Mulliner sports saloon from 1935 will be at the Fair this year. Lovingly restored three years ago after 40 years lying up, woodworm (and damp) were the main issues with the restoration, proving that they really don't make cars like this anymore!

There will be plenty more to see and enjoy at the fair with vintage tractors, a western riding display and falconry, a dog show and working dog scurry, pony carriage rides, plenty of stalls for shoppers, as well as a farmers' market and food avenue. Visitors can also try their hand at fly-fishing and there's lots going on for younger visitors as well including a juggler and a Punch and Judy show.

The Forde Abbey Summer Fair will this year be raising funds for the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution and the Chard and District Riding for the Disabled Group.

Doors to the gardens, based near Chard, open at 11am on Thursday, July 30th with entry costing £7.50 for adults, £2.50 for five to 14 years old and £18 for a family ticket for two adults and two children. Those under five years go free.

Boost for pre-school's outdoor learning

■ THE President of the Rotary Club of Chard, Eric Beckley, has made a presentation to Tatworth Pre-School in the sum of £650, which will be used to make a wildlife garden, purchase outdoor dens and extend the naturalistic outdoor play area. The sum was raised as a result of the recently held beer festival. Pictured left is Mr Beckley presenting the cheque to Sarah Sitton, the manager of the pre-school, school with the pupils

A day at the seaside for Greenfylde

■ YEAR 3 pupils from Greenfylde First School in Ilminster enjoyed a trip to the beach on Wednesday, June 3rd when they visited Charmouth in West Dorset. The trip was held to support science learning on rocks and fossils. The children also collected materials on the beach, designing and making a sculpture relating to their Art topic. They visited Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre and went fossil collecting with an expert guide.

Students join giant samba band

EARLIER this month, 26 Year 3 children from Greenfylde First School in Ilminster went to Frome to rehearse and perform with renowned percussionist Joby Burgess at The Cheese and Grain.

Greenfylde had been invited to take part in this event as a result of Somerset Music coming to the school to give the children a taste of samba.

Earlier in the spring term, Joby came and performed to the whole school and did an introductory workshop with Year 3 pupils. Since then, along with teacher Mrs Dillon, they have been practising their samba rhythms in preparation for the recent concert.

A school spokesperson said: "It was very exciting to take part in this, with a number of other schools – in total there were over 200 children! The afternoon was truly inspiring, and all the children felt such a sense of achievement after playing in this giant samba band!"

Ilminster crier is Somerset champ

Gardening club experimenting ahead of village show

DING Gardening Club in Ilminster is conducting a horticultural experiment following the visit of a guest speaker.

The aim of the experiment is to show what is possible with open-pollinated seeds, with the big showcase being planned for August. Club member Paul Pickering explained: "The speaker, on the topic of Dahlias, showed two seed-heads from open-pollinated blooms which produced over 500 seeds. These were later given out in packets of 10 for members to grow."

"The club hopes that flowers from many of these seeds will be ready for the Horton Flower Show on Saturday, August 8th. This is not as a competition, it is to illustrate the vast genetic variety that is possible with open-pollinated seeds.

"Most blooms will probably be of little interest or merit but one never knows if, perhaps, one flower could become a prized variety. Members who grew the plants are asked to collect a vase or two to show the whole variety of blooms."

Members are asked to bring their blooms to the village hall on the morning of the show. Anyone interested in finding out more about the club can call Mr Pickering on 01460 52229.

Incoming Rotary president hopes club can support local youngsters

PRESIDENT-elect of the Rotary Club of Ilminster, Linda Piggott-Vijeh, recently welcomed Somerset County Council's Independent Reviewing Officer (IRO) manager, Carolyn Drew, to speak to members about her role in overseeing the safeguarding and care standards for the 500 children in care across the county.

Carolyn has been working at the county council for 20 years in a variety of roles, and it is their shared passion for children looked after that prompted Linda, who is also a county councillor, to invite Carolyn along to demonstrate to the Rotarians how the range of situations that occur in a child's life can influence their later progress positively or negatively.

Rather than giving a lecture, Carolyn asked members to play a education training and employment capability game, which through a series of scenarios allowed the players to move up the board to win, gaining "cultural capital" cards along the way.

In summing up the session Carolyn said: "In all my years of involvement with these children, Linda is the only county councillor to really roll up her sleeves and become actively involved. She has been a tremendous support in our work with the Somerset In Care and Leaving Care Councils, and the children adore her. It is her own experiences that enable Linda to really relate to them and understand what is happening in their lives."

As a result of Carolyn's, visit the Rotary Club of Ilminster is now looking at ways in which it can become involved in supporting these youngsters to help them to gain access to the educational opportunities and skills that will help to positively influence their futures.

As she takes on the role of club president, Linda said she is keen to focus on how Rotary can have a positive impact locally on the lives of young people, something she has always been passionate about. She also recently invited Somerset County Council service manager and head of youth development, Jeff Brown, to speak to the club about the valuable work the county council carries out as operators of the Duke of Edinburgh scheme.

The scheme will have been in place for 60 years in 2016 and, after putting everyone through their paces with a tough quiz, Jeff outlined the important character building qualities that young people aged between 14 and 24 can gain by participating.

At each of the three levels - bronze, silver and gold - youngsters are challenged to gain new expertise in four key areas - volunteering, expedition planning, physical activities and skills.

Last year, 2,100 young people across the county took part in the programme, of which 46 per cent successfully completed, which is slightly higher than the national average.

In thanking Jeff for his talk, Linda said: "As a club we are really keen to make a long term commitment to the young people in the area and I am very much hoping that in the coming months a number of us will put ourselves forward to become leaders to support children in care in gaining these valuable life skills that can make such a difference to their future."

"This afternoon I also attended the new homework club, held in the town's Minster rooms on a Wednesday afternoon, where local volunteers are helping pupils from Swanmead and Greenfylde schools to do their homework."

"I certainly found it challenging, and was also impressed by the enormous amount of tea and toast they consumed, the cost of which I am hoping to be able to fund. At less than £5 a week it is not much to ask."

POTATO supplier Branston has donated a total of £4,000 to two worthy causes in the local area.

Staff at Branston, based at Seavington near Ilminster, presented a £3,500 cheque to Phil Edge, the chief executive officer of Brainwave towards child sponsorship.

This will help Brainwave to improve mobility communication skills and learning potential through a range of educational and physical therapies.

Branston's sponsor money will also help to provide children with personal therapy treatment programmes and the equipment they need to carry it out and ongoing support.

A donation was also made to the Seavington Playing Field Association, which is holding a summer event to celebrate 40 years of the village playing field and the fifth anniversary of the opening of its community shop and café.

Branston donated £500 to the cause in order to help towards the costs of the summer event which is due to take place at the end of July.

There will be a whole week of activities ending in a field day – a community event and picnic to take place in the first week of August.

Branston's general manager Ian Wait said: "I am delighted to support both of these charities.

"The Seavington playing field and village shop is very close to our factory and we like to have both good relationships with our neighbours and to offer our support to the local community.

"Brainwave is a charity with which we have had a long association and it is great to continue this with our recent donation."

Apprentice at top of his trade

AN Ilminster electrical apprentice has been named highly commended in the Screwfix Trade Apprentice of 2015 competition following a nationwide search for the best future tradesmen and women in the UK.

Josh Lee, 19, who is currently studying for his Level 3 NVQ Diploma in installing electro-technical systems and equipment at P&R Hurt in Yeovil, has been recognised due to his outstanding professionalism, talent and trade knowledge.

He attended the grand finale at Google HQ earlier this month and took part in a series of challenges and an interview to prove he had what it took to be the best in the business.

He wowed a judging panel with his professionalism and commitment to his trade. His drive and commitment to his electrical apprenticeship stood out amongst the finalists, along with his drive and ambition to successfully kick start his career.

Josh said: "I am delighted that I have won the title of highly commended in Screwfix Trade Apprentice 2015.

"I love all things electrical and I can't wait to make my trade a future career. This competition has provided me with recognition in my local area and I am looking forward to venturing into the industry independently."

In its first year, this highly competitive award led by leading multi-channel retailer, Screwfix, aims to recognise and champion the best trade apprentices in the UK.

Andrew Livingston, CEO of Screwfix, commented: "Trade professionals are the backbone of Britain and Josh is an example of a young person who we believe will be an outstanding tradesman in the future. We would like to wish him the best of luck and look forward to hearing about their future successes."

The ultimate business and trade bundle worth £10,000 has been presented to the Screwfix Trade Apprentice 2015 winner, Nadia Connabeer, from Bridgwater College.

Plans underway for summer festival

MEMBERS of the Chard Town Team are busy preparing for this year's Summer Festival but they need more helpers to make it a real success.

Chard has held a summer festival, which has included shows, exhibitions, a fun day and also the lighting of the Beacon, for a few years now thanks to the Chard Town Team and all of the volunteers that help.

But Jason Baker, of the Chard Town Team, said that this year they are trying something a "little different" for the festival which will be held on Saturday and Sunday, July 18th and 19th.

"We will start our weekend of events with a street market and craft fair in Holyrood Street during the Saturday morning along with street entertainers and buskers to help bring the area alive," said Mr Baker.

"From 6pm there will be a parade making its way up through the town with groups and individuals dressed in various costumes from history including some Horrible Histories.

"The parade up through town will finish at the Beacon where there will be various entertainment and live music.

"Once dark people will be entertained by fire breathers and, of course, the evening will end with the lighting of the beacon!"

The following day will see the parade head down through the town from 12noon and heading to Jocelyn for a Party in the Park where there will be lots of community stalls and local groups along with a packed afternoon of fun games and entertainment.

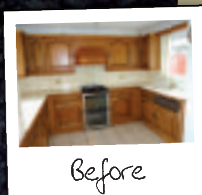

Mr Baker said: "People are invited to bring their picnic blankets and join us for a great day out – there will be something for everyone."

Anybody wishing to join in the parade or have a stall at one of these events can get information from the Guildhall in Chard or email jason.baker@southsomer-set.gov.uk

Schools join forces for maths project

■ WORKING TOGETHER: Students from cross Crewkerne and Ilminster schools working on their maths calculations. Below, a pupils from Greenfylde First School

THIRTY children from across Crewkerne and Ilminster Schools Partnership met at Wadham School on Thursday, June 25th to be part of a maths filming day.

Pupils as young as six through to students who had recently completed their A-levels joined forces to work on maths problems and be filmed as part of a project between all schools in the partnership to support children with their numeracy development.

The pupils had been preparing for several weeks beforehand, practicing their calculations as well as their teaching skills, ready for the big day.

A maths circus was also organised to challenge pupils in various questions and activities, and they had a great time solving the puzzles together.

Head of maths at Wadham, Caren Forsey, was responsible for organising the event.

She said: "This has been the culmination of a much larger piece of work developing a calculations policy for the partnership.

"All schools have been involved in compiling a really valuable piece of work which will ensure pupils receive consistent support in their maths development from five to 18 years across the Crewkerne and Ilminster area.

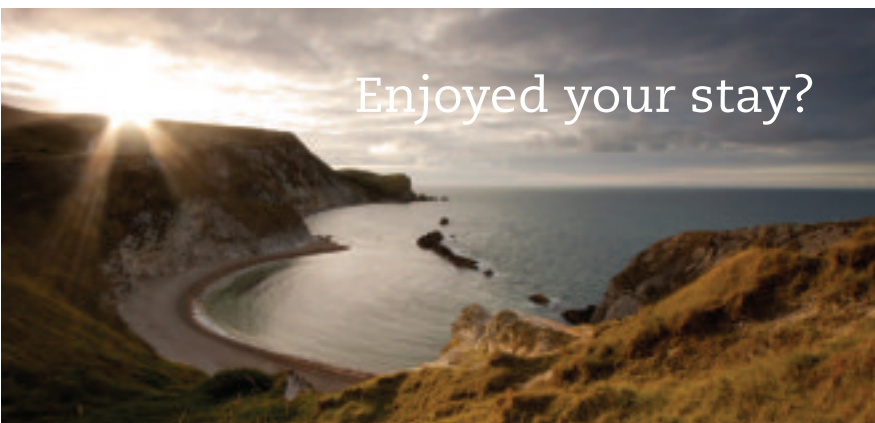

"All the students have been fantastic. The children were buzzing afterwards, with one Ashlands pupil summing up the day as 'brilliant, absolutely brilliant'."

Greenfylde First School in Ilminster also held two parent workshops to launch the schools partnership's new policy on maths and to show parents not only how the school was teaching calculations but also how they could support this learning at home through everyday problem solving.

Many parents commented how different not only the methods for calculations were but also the vocabulary involved since they had learnt it themselves at school.

■ SHOW AND TELL: Children from Greenfylde First School invited in parents to see how they work on maths calculations. Below, Lauren Paul and George Lewis of Swanmead Primary School in Ilminster

County council invests in jobs for young people

SOMERSET County Council has committed an additional £100,000 to fund its innovative Pathway to Employment scheme for 2015-16.

The programme launched in 2013 to help vulnerable young people gain valuable work based training and experience and set them on the path to permanent employment.

Since then, 46 young people have been supported into a variety of roles across the council as apprentices, interns or graduate trainees. These young people may have previously been in care, have a disability or learning difficulties and might have found it difficult to find employment without the scheme.

Thanks to the programme, young people in the county have gained new skills in children's centres, nurseries, schools, in transport and IT services, and even the County Hall canteen. Many of the original apprentices have gone on to secure permanent roles within the council.

Last year the council also funded "Project Search" in partnership with Musgrove Park Hospital and Somerset College. This project will help support up to 16 more 17-year-olds with a learning disability into employment for a year.

The county council's spokesman for human resources, health and transformation, Councillor Anna Groskop, said: "The Pathway to Employment Scheme has been a great success since its launch and we really want to continue to build on that success. With the additional budget now approved, we will soon have supported up to 75 young people from a variety of backgrounds.

"Many of our vulnerable young people might find other routes into employment difficult so it is incredibly rewarding to see those we have supported building a career out of their experiences and the training they have received through this scheme."

If you know a young person who would benefit from the Pathway to Employment scheme please get in touch with Clive Mallon by emailing cmallon@somerset.gov.uk

Yeovilton celebrates 75th anniversary

HMS HERON - also known as Royal Naval Air Station Yeovilton - has been celebrating the 75th anniversary of when it was officially commissioned.

The site at Yeovilton was initially identified by Harald Penrose, Westland's chief test pilot who saw it as a prime candidate for a new factory in 1938.

AgustaWestland celebrates 100 years of aircraft manufacture this year, which began with a contract to build Short seaplanes for the Royal Naval Air Service and the company has had very close links with Yeovilton ever since it was built.

Unfortunately for Westland, the Church Commissioners refused to sell to them the land and when war with Germany became inevitable it was compulsorily purchased and building of the first custom built naval air station since the end of the First World War began.

One of the attractions of Yeovilton was that it was well away from the south east of England and less likely to be subjected to bombing by the Luftwaffe.

When RNAS Ford near Chichester was severely bombed in May 1940, No.1 Observer's School took up temporary residence before the station was officially commissioned as HMS Heron on June 18th, 1940, under Captain H.S. Murray Smith.

This year's RNAS Yeovilton International Air Day on July 11th will carry Yeovilton 75 as its theme and will demonstrate the outstanding capability past and present of the Royal Navy alongside the Army, Royal Air Force and International Air Forces, an action packed Air Day not to be missed.

Council to host ninth annual Gold Star Awards for young volunteers

YOUNG people and the unsung volunteers who work with them in South Somerset will get the chance to scoop a prestigious trophy when the Gold Star Awards return for 2015.

This will be the ninth year that South Somerset District Council has organised the awards, which aim to showcase the breadth of talented, caring and hardworking young people as well as the volunteers who enable them to reach their full potential.

Steve Barnes, young people's officer at South Somerset District Council, explained: "So many people put in hours of their own time to help young people in South Somerset and the Gold Star Awards celebrates the incredible work that they do as well as the remarkable young people themselves.

"The show will take place at the Octagon Theatre on Tuesday, October 27th and although there are ten awards to give out, the trophies are only a small part of what the Gold Star Awards are all about.

"This event aims to inspire other young people and volunteers by showing what a difference they can make to their communities and we are urging people to nominate their unsung hero now.

"As part of the event we will also be showcasing the talent of local young people. Before the awards are handed out we will have short performances from groups including Castle Cary Amateur Theatrical Society and Infinity Martial Arts."

More than 600 people packed into the Octagon Theatre for last year's awarded so anticipation is high for this year's event.

Councillor Sylvia Seal, South Somerset District Council's portfolio holder for Leisure & Culture said, "Year round we support young people and the volunteers who work with them through training and financial support.

"For us, the Gold Star Awards is a perfect way to reward the unsung heroes who go about their business without fuss but who make such a difference.

"We recognise that it is these dedicated volunteers, coaches and young people that breathe life into their communities by bringing clubs, facilities and activities to many of our rural villages and market towns.

"This event is about giving something back to these people as well as inspiring others to get involved with what's happening locally."

CLOS to perform 'All the Fun of the Fair'

CHARD Light Operatic Society will be performing "All the Fun of the Fair" later this year to coincide with carnival.

The musical production will be performed at the Guildhall in Chard – in conjunction with Chard Carnival Committee – on October 7th to 9th.

Set against the backdrop of a travelling fun-fair, the musical is a brand new, action-packed production inspired by David Essex's debut album "All the Fun of the Fair" and underscored by a helter-skelter of hits such as "Winter's Tale", "Hold Me Close", "Gonna Make You a Star", "Me and My Girl (Nightclubbing)", "Silver Dream Machine" and "Rock On".

SOMERSET LETTERS

Do locals get a say on CLR site?

■ I HATE to say "I told you so" but we knew from the start that this would happen ("Plans for more homes on land set aside for employment", Pulman's View From Crewkerne, June 16th).

Amateur, self-appointed members of parochial planning committees should not be involved when it comes to dealing with national building companies. It is the usual ploy of gaining permission on a piece of their land-bank and then manipulating planning until they get what they want.

Crewkerne will become more of a dormitory town than it already is and we know from all the surveys and reports that the traffic system will not cope with the original plans, let alone another 175 houses. The junction of South Street and Market Street will be nightmare - not scaremongering but fact already known and ignored by all concerned.

The Area West Committee report says there are no "outstanding highways... objections". Well, yes there are, and they were known and voiced from the outset and still stand as unresolved.

The people of Crewkerne said no to the CLR site but were ignored by a few self-appointed councillors of the Area West Committee, most of whom didn't even represent the town. Well, now it is time to listen. If we have to have the CLR then the original plan that was approved should stand and if it is not viable (which they probably knew from the outset) it is a business risk they took and it failed.

Former MP David Laws told me he could not become involved in local planning issues; what is the view of our new MP? Do the local people get a say or not?

ANTHONY HALL,
Crewkerne

Support renationalisation of railways

■ THE public like trains and so does the Green Party.

The majority of us would prefer to see our rail network back in public hands, so it can provide a more reliable much-needed service at a better price.

The latest rail passenger survey shows satisfaction with train operating companies has fallen. And now the government are delaying or cutting back a number of modernisation projects planned for Network Rail.

The Conservative Party said at the recent election they would spend £38billion upgrading our railways. This early cut back suggests we are looking at a broken promise.

I'd like to ask your readers to support plans to renationalise the railways, as the Green Party does, to provide a modern rail network that our country can be proud of.

Still undecided about where to study in September?

Places still available at The Woodroffe School Sixth Form

Georgia
I stayed at Woodroffe because I know everyone and feel safe. I took part in clubs, team sports and jazz band and wanted to continue with the many extra-curricular activities here. This year I'm part of the 45 mile Ten Tors Team and run with the cross country club.

Ellie
I feel part of a big family here, there's always someone to support us from both staff and students. I look forward to school each day and am confident that I'll leave equipped to pursue my ambitions.

Curtis
I came to Woodroffe from another school and struggled to keep up with my A levels but with the help of Mrs Cropp, the 6th form librarian, I'm managing quite well. The students made me welcome and the social life is good.

Caitlin
Having previously aspired to come to Woodroffe for 6th Form, I made the decision to stay at my current school. After three days in their 6th form I knew it wasn't for me and made the decision to start at Woodroffe. I was welcomed with open arms by students and staff and quickly became involved. I sing with the choir, do lots of sport and have joined the French exchange.

The sixth form offers:

- A uniquely supportive and friendly environment
- A wide range of A-Level courses
- Excellent facilities, including a large common room and a dedicated sixth form library
- Highly skilled teaching staff
- A very low drop out rate compared to other institutions
- A fantastic range of extra-curricular activities
- Intensive support with university applications

Ofsted described the sixth form as 'a highly successful sixth form' with 'dedicated and passionate leadership', and noted that 'Students who join the sixth form from other schools are welcomed equally and settle in quickly'.

The Woodroffe School is:

- A high attaining academic institution
- A National Teaching School
- A Cultural Education Lead School
- Ofsted 'outstanding' for the quality of Teaching
- A National Maths Hub

Students join us from all over Dorset, Devon and Somerset. Students who leave us in Year 11 to join other institutions often return after a few weeks away!

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVERGREEN-HEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

About Laser Therapy (LLLT)

Anti-inflammatory, Analgesic, Promotes repair Low level laser therapy (LLLT) is the application of red and near infra-red light over injuries to increase the speed, quality and tensile strength of tissue repair; resolve inflammation and relieve pain.

LLLT is popularly used for acute and chronic pain on soft tissue injuries, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, post operation recovery and general body aches.

When cells are stressed, Nitric Oxide inhibits oxygen consumption by mitochondrial cytochrome c oxidase. This reduces production of a protein called ATP. LLLT displaces Nitric Oxide from cytochrome c oxidase thereby reducing inflammation and restoring ATP production, in turn allowing tissue to heal quicker and relieve pain completely drug free.

Other users of the same laser system include Harvard Medical School, NASA researchers, US Navy, RAF, British Army, BUPA and many more.

Val Davis Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

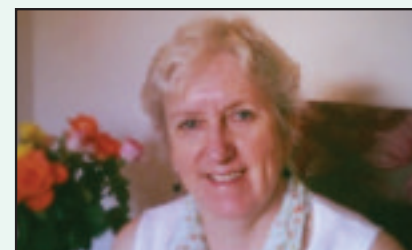

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

West of England Laser Centre

Birthmarks, Thread Veins And Other Blemishes

BROWN birthmarks are caused by an excess of melanin, the skin's natural tanning pigment, causing, for example, 'café-au-lait' birthmarks. Exposure to the sun's ultra-violet rays can also result in similar changes such as freckles and sun/age/liver spots.

Red birthmarks, such as 'port-wine stains' are caused by an excess of blood vessels near the skin surface, varying from pale pink to purple. Other blood vessel problems sometimes occur in the form of unsightly 'thread/spider' veins and 'blood spots' (haemangiomas).

The West of England Laser Centre at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital undertakes treatment with advanced laser technology. A variety of lasers using different types, colours and intensities of laser light are used to treat different skin conditions. The laser energy either destroys the vessels by heat or breaks down pigment into tiny particles which are then dispersed naturally by the body. The darker the pigmented area to be treated, the more treatments required.

Also available: laser removal of other skin conditions such as excess hair, moles, warts, verrucas and tattoos plus surgery for baggy eyelids (blepharoplasty). For further information please contact us on 01823-331773 or visit our website at www.welc.co.uk

The Alexander Technique for Riders

GOOD for us and good for our horses!

'The horse has given us pleasure ages and service throughout the ages. Yet all the while it was bringing us an even greater gift: a gift of life - the lesson of 'good use'. (Danny Pevsner)

If you watch a horse when he is free, he uses himself well, his head, neck and back in perfect alignment. Although the horses' muscle and bone is essentially the same as ours, his muscular and skeletal systems are profoundly affected by the fact that he is physically and psychologically developed for running away from his enemies. He was not primarily designed to have someone sitting on his back. Carrying a rider changes his movement: horse and rider have a dynamic balance - balance in motion not static balance. If that balance is disturbed in any way the horse will not be able to move freely.

The Alexander technique can give us a practical way in helping us to overcome our habitually muscular tension. Our horse will enjoy our newfound lightness and will appreciate being able to move with lightness himself.

Trudy Smith - BWRT

Brain Working Recursive Therapy

BWRT is a relatively new form of therapy for the 21st century which is evidence based and solution-focused. Often, only one session is needed. BWRT stands for Brain-Working Recursive Therapy, a model of psychology and psychotherapy created by professional therapist Terence Watts MCGI. It is totally confidential that doesn't require you to reveal any private information or personal secrets to your therapist and it is carried out in a completely conscious state. It does not use hypnosis or any mystical concepts. It is completely logical and practical and only needs you to know what you want to change in your life for it to be completely successful. Only certified practitioners have been trained to deliver BWRT and all have to adhere to a strict ethical code. Find out more at <http://bwrt.org>

Therapy of the Month

Advanced Massage Therapy - Emma Gilmore and Jon Stocks

'Aiming to restore you to a pain-free, active lifestyle'

Emma and Jon work with clients who are seeking treatment for pain and chronic disorders, help with posture and mobility and help with managing stress and injury. They aim to help patients gain a greater sense of empowerment and believe in the innate power of the body to self-heal, both Emma's and Jon's work prompt the body to do this.

What is Myofascial Release?

Emma and Jon believe that Myofascial Release is the missing link in body care. It has been around in different forms since Andrew Taylor Still (1828-1917), founder of Osteopathy, used feedback from palpating to achieve release of myofascial tissue.

Fascial restriction does not show up on CAT or MRI scans, therefore many patients can be suffering unresolved physical and emotional pain due to undiagnosed physical trauma. The myofascial release practitioner looks beyond the symptom to the root cause. For scientific evidence on how fascia responds see www.fasciacongress.org and visit School of Bodywork's website www.schoolofbodywork.com to find out more.

To book an appointment with Emma or Jon visit apt@clinicofbodywork or call 07711 656 011

Roots To Health

ROOTS To Health is a local complementary consultancy, advice and prescription practice run by qualified medical herbalist Jayne Palmer.

Herbal medicine, or Phytotherapy, is a science in its own right, based on modern scientific research. It's the world's oldest and most widely-used form of medicine and uses plant extracts to treat common health complaints such as raised blood pressure, headaches, stress and indigestion.

Jayne has a BSc in Phytotherapy. She spent many years working in local health food stores as a herbal advisor, then decided to work within a conventional medical role as healthcare assistant at Honiton Surgery, in order to gain the benefits of both fields of medicine.

Last year, she decided to set up her own clinic, which she now offers at the Health and Wellbeing Centre in Axminster on Mondays and at the Chiropractic Health Centre in Honiton on Saturdays.

Jayne explains: "Herbs can be used to treat the body in many different ways and, combined properly, will work effectively as medication for a large range of diseases. We are all unique and will respond to herbs differently. As a herbalist, I'm trained in the same diagnostic skills as orthodox doctors and choose herbs specifically for each individual. I search for, and treat, the underlying Initial consultations with Jayne last 60 to 90 minutes, during which you will be given a treatment plan including tailor-made prescriptions. These could include tinctures, creams or lotions, ointments, oils and infusions.

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Asking For It

PINCH bring their provocative and humourous show to the Marine Theatre

FOLLOWING the development of this production at the Marine Theatre as part of the R&D by the Sea programme last year, The Marine Theatre is pleased to welcome back PINCH's latest work, 'Asking for it', on Thursday, July 2nd.

The show examines the phrase 'asking for it' through dance theatre with a healthy dose of the ludicrous. From the street to the bedroom, squeezed between shame and fetishisation, female sexuality is feted and promoted in conflicting ways. PINCH explore this territory in search of freedom, delving into the debate without agenda, in search of a way to simply be...yourself.

Performed with delicious humour Asking For It celebrates the ridiculous and desperate in equal measure, capturing the paradoxes of using sex to gain empowerment.

PINCH perform 'Asking For It' on Thursday, July 2nd, 8pm at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Tickets are £12, concessions £10, and a TheatreFriends discount available.

Speakeasy Night at the Arts Centre

MIKE Denham returns to Ilminster Arts Centre to host another of his hugely popular 'SpeakEasy Nights'. These occasional concerts see Mike take his accustomed place at the Arts Centre's parlour grand piano and team up with a special guest musician to play music from the golden age of jazz.

For this speakeasy session Mike will be joined by the formidably talented clarinetist and sax player, John Wurr.

It will be an evening of vintage jazz played by two masters of this particular genre. The programme will feature tunes from "Tin Pan Alley", Broadway and the UK popular charts, from the 1920s through to the 50s, interspersed with interesting facts and amusing anecdotes about the music and those who wrote and performed it.

The dark days of Prohibition may be long gone but as Mike and John prove, the music of the era lives on.

The Mike Denham and John Wurr Speakeasy Night takes place at Ilminster Arts Centre this Friday, July 3rd at 8pm.

Tickets are £12 from the box office on 01460 54973 or online at the website www.themeetinghouse.org.uk.

A pre-show supper is available for £12 at 7pm, but must be pre-booked.

Texan Country star at the Cavern

SaraBeth

THE FAMILIAR saying "everything is bigger in Texas" comes to mind when describing the voice of powerhouse Country vocalist and Texas native, SaraBeth. Born and raised in Dallas, SaraBeth is a contemporary country singer-songwriter who is making her mark in Nashville as the sweetly southern artist with an edge. The smart, beautiful and talented songstress is quickly earning fans with her spirited vocals and energetic live performance.

SaraBeth introduced herself to country music this past year with the release of her debut album, "Anything Is Possible." Her music videos found their home on GAC & ZUUS while she became the only top independent trending artist on CMT.com. With dates nationwide, she has shared the stage with Craig Morgan, Brantley Gilbert, Lonestar, Tate Stevens and has participated in the 2013, 2014, and 2015 City of Hope Celebrity Softball Challenge alongside Florida Georgia Line, Brett Eldredge, Little Big Town, Vince Gill and more. Her current project, a self-titled EP simply called SaraBeth, was released in April 2015 and was entirely co-written by SaraBeth.

SaraBeth doesn't take all the credit for her drive, determination and passion for music. When asked, she explains that her family plays an essential role in her story. "My younger brother was drafted to play pro baseball for the Cardinals, my dad recently wrote a book on motivation and inspires people all over the world, and my mom is the glue that holds us all together. With all these incredibly successful and driven role models in my life, I thought, how can I NOT go after this dream?"

Being born and raised in the Texas music scene, SaraBeth knows country music. Her pride for her home state, coupled with her love for genuine, authentic lyrics, has influenced her style and kept her true to her roots. She has appeared on a multitude of television shows including the nationally syndicated Daytime, Good Day Dallas, D The Broadcast (Dallas), Fox 26 Morning News (Houston), Great Day SA (San Antonio), More at Midday (Nashville), Tennessee Mornings (Nashville) and nationally syndicated radio show, The Bobby Bones Show, and continues to raise awareness to her budding music career.

SaraBeth plays at the Exeter Cavern on August 18th. For more details and to book visit www.exetercavern.com

The Paperboys | Saturday, July 25th

JUNE got off to a great start when we were entertained by the totally unique World Music group, Baka Beyond. Theirs is a fusion of Celtic and other Western music styles mixed with the traditional Baka music from Camaroon. The rhythm is totally infectious and resulted in nearly everyone on their feet moving to the beat. Baka Beyond proved once again that they are not only unique but also fantastically entertaining. Loved by all!

On Friday 12th, Greg Russell and Ciaran Algar visited us for the first time – and I am sure it will not be the last! These two amazingly talented young musicians gave a fantastic performance. It was easy to see why they have won so many awards since the duo's formation in 2011. Fiddle, guitar and voice have never sounded better. Certainly ones to watch for the future.

Saturday, June 20th brought the 4th Petherton Folk Fest to the village and we were lucky to again enjoy a dry day. Once more large crowds attended and fully enjoyed the music and dance that was available in venues throughout the village. Children were particularly well catered for with workshops, Punch and Judy and an excellent puppet show presented by The Angel Heart Theatre. A range of musical tastes were catered for with one of the highlights being the closing set by The Drystones, the young duo from Priddy who went on to perform (again!) at Glastonbury. Great food, great music and great fun make a winning recipe and we will do it all again next year on Saturday 18th June (an early date for your 2016 diary!).

I would like to extend a huge "thank you" to all who make this event possible, including the District and Parish Councils and Orchards Estates, who sponsored the event. Plus, a massive "thanks!" to the hard-working committee and all the volunteers, without whom the Folk Fest could not happen.

July sees the start of The David Hall's new programme which contains some really exciting events. This is well demonstrated by the contrasting gigs in July which start on Saturday 4th with the return of mother and daughter duo, Chris and Kellie While. The world-class vocals of internationally-lauded Chris, and the uncannily similar quality of daughter Kellie, combine for an evening of unforgettable live music. Last with us in May 2011, this duo will provide a night of quality entertainment.

On Saturday 25th we are delighted to welcome,

Chris and Kellie While | Saturday, July 4th

for the first time, one of Canada's top bands – The Paperboys. I first saw this band a decade ago and have often dreamed of getting them to perform in our special space. Led by Mexican-born Tom Landa, The Paperboys fuse Folk, Celtic and Bluegrass with Pop and Rock. One of the tightest bands you will ever see. They will be supported by Dan Webster, a seasoned English singer/songwriter described by Americana UK as a hybrid of Damian Rice, Seth Lakeman and Tom McRae. This is a gig that should not be missed!

The Peatbog Faeries | Friday, July 31st

Friday 31st sees the 4th visit to Petherton of the Isle of Skye's famous band – The Peatbog Faeries. Each time we have had The Peatbogs at The David Hall we have sold every seat, and at the time of going to print, only a few tickets remain.

The Peatbog Faeries are the trailblazers of the Celtic dance music renaissance. This will be a 'Chance to Dance event' which means plenty of room to dance but, we still cater for those wishing to sit and listen. We have been able to secure this booking because the band is on its way to the Sidmouth Festival, where they are headlining on the Saturday. This is high-octane Celtic dance music as you've never heard it before and is a great way to end a fantastic month of music!

Cheers! to all,
Pete Wheeler,
Petherton Arts Trust

Also at The David Hall in July

PETHERTON Picture Show will screen 'The Theory of Everything', the extraordinary story of the renowned astrophysicist, Stephen Hawking, starring Eddie Redmayne in his Oscar-winning role on Friday, July 3rd; and on Friday, July 17th, 'What we did on our Holiday', featuring David Tennant, Rosamund Pike, Billy Connolly, Celia Imrie and Ben Miller.

Performance Night is scheduled for Friday, July 24th at 7.30pm. To perform, please drop an email to folk@chriswatts.org

The David Hall's popular monthly Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday, July 29th from 10am to 12pm. Entry is free.

For further details about any of the above please check the website, www.thedavidhall.org.uk, or call 01460 240 340.

Ocean on Exmouth seafront launches this Sunday

LED are opening the doors for a fun-filled family day at Ocean on Exmouth seafront on Sunday, July 5th.

LED are thrilled to be opening up the whole Ocean complex for everyone to experience.

Between 10am-6pm entry to the soft play will be FREE and LED are giving everyone a FREE trial of the new interactive Quibica bowling system that will take the bowling experience to a whole new level!

The stunning Ocean Suite will be open for tours and refreshments, so visitors can relax on the terrace with a drink from the bar or an indulgent cream tea.

Monkey Music and The Creation Station will also be joining the fun and entertaining the children on the soft play deck, with heaps of music, songs and crafts. Balloon modelling, a magic show and LED's very own friendly dinosaur, Ledley, will also be making an appearance - it's a great day out that's not to be missed!

Steve Davies, LED's new head of marketing and sales said "I'm so pleased to be joining the team at this exciting time. The soft play is one of the biggest in the area and we are the first in the South-West to have the interactive Quibica bowling system, which I'm sure people of all ages will enjoy! I'm also delighted that everyone will have the opportunity to experience the Ocean Suite, it's a striking venue with simply stunning views that are faultless for any wedding or event. We're all really looking forward to welcoming the local community to the launch day on Sunday 5th July."

Lyme Regis is ready to rock as Big Mix welcomes Glasto stars

GLASTONBURY is over for another year, but Lyme Regis is preparing to go global on Saturday, July 4th as this year's Big Mix family youth music festival welcomes a world of talent to the town from near and far.

Fresh from their appearance and having a massive impact at Glastonbury, dance band KOG and the Zongo Brigade will headline the festival. Fronted by the irrepressible Ghanaian-born songwriter and performer Kweku Of Ghana their blend of West African rhythms, soul, funk, reggae and Latin jazz has taken them all over Britain and Europe and they arrive in Lyme Regis on the back of a UK tour in support of their seven-track Akwaaba EP.

Returning to the Big Mix stage in Theatre Square are Brighton-based power pop trio The RPMs. Originally from Bridport, singer Jack Valero can't wait to return to the local scene of some of their very first gigs together.

"We're really looking forward to playing for B Sharp again," says Jack. "We had so much fun when we played for them before and they were very supportive in those first few days of us starting out as a band."

"The Big Mix is really great because it's pretty much the only music festival for aspiring musicians in the Dorset area to perform at."

Also following up a storming show at Glastonbury, Calamity Poets bring their self-styled 'spaghetti shonk' - a fusion of blues, folk, rock and jazz - to the Big Mix having expanded their original guitar and trumpet line up to incorporate a full band.

Promoted by young people's music charity B Sharp, the Big Mix is run by young people for young people and families with a range of fringe activities including mobile skate ramps and a chill out and 'crafter-noon' area run by young artists that includes a painting workshop, face painting, nail art, hair braiding, beach art and much more.

The bill also includes Bridport singer songwriter and B Sharp young music leader Ella Squirrel, Weymouth-based grime artists SouthDub, Lyme's own pop jazziers Joanna Clark and Nathan Austin and opera singer Chloe Stratta, who worked for B Sharp as a singing mentor. Four groups from Hub Jams, B Sharp's creative music making sessions, will launch a four-track CD and Boombox Music, created at Charmouth Primary with BSharp music leaders Jacques Verhaeren and Pete Wild, will also be performing.

The Big Mix runs from 1pm to 11.30pm in Theatre Square, Lyme Regis.

Tickets (£5, £18s £1) are selling fast and are strictly limited. To avoid disappointment organisers recommend booking now from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138.

Henhayes rocks along with the Boogie Men

THE HENHAYES Centre in Crewkerne is really pulling out all the stops in celebration of 40 years working to improve the quality of life of older people in the community. With the fifth concert this year, this time with boogie woogie piano maestros The Boogie Men, the Centre is building a reputation for a 'good night out' and good food as well. Last Friday night (June 26th) visitors enjoy chicken curry with an orange sorbet to follow. It was a fantastic evening of entertainment with the music of Chuck Berry among others and the amazing lightening piano playing of Chris Rickard.

The Centre supports its work by staging events such as this but it is nice that everything is also so enjoyable, many relived their stylish moments on the floor to the sound of Elvis.

Don't miss the fun this coming Friday when there will be a cream tea for just £2 between 3 – 5pm followed at 7pm until 10pm dancing to the music of The Dave Bowen Quartet £5 (remember Roll Out The Barrel last year?) with b-b-q food available. There will also be pictures from 40 years ago on display – maybe you will spot a family member or friend.

Traditional Andalusian Flamenco returns to the Beehive

KARINA Garcia and Luna Gitana return to the Beehive on Saturday, July 4th after the stunning performance and the wonderful supper that everyone so enjoyed last year.

The show will see the sensual dance and haunting songs of flamenco, accompanied by fierce footwork and percussive guitar. South West based Luna Gitana brings an authentic and passionate production of traditional Andalusian Flamenco in a collaboration of Spanish and home grown artists.

Book a table for this special event, tickets are £20 each to include a welcoming glass of Sangria and a delicious homemade Spanish Supper. Bookings will close by 5pm on Friday, July 3rd.

THE WORD is definitely getting out there that Honiton has a top class cinema with comfy seats, smiling staff, delicious ice creams and drinks from the bar that can be consumed whilst watching a fabulous movie with your friends or family.

Another great thing is that because Honiton Community Cinema initially brought cinema to the town and the Beehive, it still feels like a friendly event within the community, which of course it is and due to this everyone feels very welcome and happy to turn up on their own.

TRIP community transport service are also providing lifts for the elderly or infirm, who cannot easily get to The Beehive, for the 7.30pm showing of The Second Best Exotic Marigold Hotel on Friday 3rd July. This arrangement is due to the generous sponsorship by Co-Operative Funeral care that recognised the need for this service within the town.

There are some great films coming up over the summer, the cult classic, Blade Runner (The Final Cut), The Woman in Gold starring Helen Mirren, Avengers: Age of Ultron, and Minions to name a few!

Our live events are also increasingly popular and we are still trying various acts to see what the good folk of Honiton like. On Saturday 4th July we have another fabulous Flamenco evening with soulful singing and absolutely captivating traditional Flamenco accompanied by David Nash on Spanish Guitar, with Tapas and supper all for £20!

Live band, Must be Mad will be playing traditional dances and some sequence dances at the Beehive Tea dance on Friday 10th at 2.30pm and Hazel and her team of volunteers will be serving the scrumptious afternoon teas. Then on the 11th we have the eagerly anticipated return of Sweet Honi N' Soul for their concert of popular, rock and soul songs with some brilliant soloists accompanied by a live band and horn section.

The following Saturday 18th July everyone is invited to bring along a little something from their family archive, it could be an object, or a photo, something that means something to them, just to share with the artists at the end of the show. 'Archive' is a charming piece of dance theatre telling tales from each of the performer's family histories ranging from Grandma's 30's cruise and the ship's log to Granddad's tools and Granny's favourite recipes. For only £5 & £3 concessions, it is well worth a try!

Beautiful Blue Mac at The Aviator

TEAMING the wonderful Chris and Ollie with the cheeky chappie, Dandy, to give you a great set, wonderful songs and haunting harmonies, Beautiful Blue Mac (BBM) are an exciting and established band with years of combined experience, not in just singing and playing guitars, but entertaining the audience (lets face it we all want to be entertained). Beautiful Blue Mac are available for pub gigs, functions, festivals, weddings, parties, anything really, we just love playing! Being a trio we can fit into small places but deliver a large sound and stage presence to get everyone dancing and singing along.

Guitarist Chris swaps between six and twelve string acoustic guitars during a BBM performance, to give their sets an amazing variety of sound. His percussive style allows them to play some very interesting and unusual songs.

Ashley is the master percussionist, as well as a fine vocalist. Give him a cowbell, a tambourine or a pair of maracas and he is in his element, he just loves to involve the audience as much as possible during a gig. He even sits down now and then on his Cajon!

Ollie is the female vocalist, who brings a wealth of singing talent to the band. Ollie has sung rock, country, blues, soul and jazz in several bands over the years. She is versatile and truly professional and sings both lead and backing vocals as required. She also has the very difficult job of keeping 'The Boys' in order!

If you are looking for a great evening's entertainment then please, look no further than Beautiful Blue Mac You won't be disappointed!

Beautiful Blue Mac play live at the Aviator, Dunkeswell on Saturday, July 11th. For more details see the advert below.

BEER, 3 BEDROOM HOUSE

WITH PARKING, GARAGE AND GARDEN IN BEER £397,500

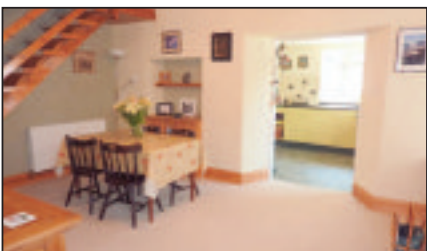

1 Rock Cottages is a character 3 bedroom semi-detached house which has been home to the same family for a couple of generations and is now offered for sale by the current owners who have lived in the property for over 30 years. It is situated just off the centre of the village within easy walking distance of the shops and beach.

The property has been updated and improved over the years and in 2013, a beautiful loft conversion was created which now provides a spacious master bedroom with exposed beams and a contemporary en-suite shower room with WC. At the same time, a new gas central heating boiler was installed and the family bathroom was refitted to include a separate shower enclosure and partially sunken, double ended, jacuzzi bath. There is a modern fitted kitchen and full uPVC double glazing throughout.

A particular feature of the cottage is the lovely landscaped gardens to the rear which rise up in terraces above the cottage including a high decked area which enjoys the sun until late evening. The cottage also boasts a large garage and parking for 3/4 cars which is a real bonus in the centre of this village.

The cottage is deceptively spacious and must be viewed internally to be fully appreciated. For more information or to book a viewing, please contact Fortnam Smith & Banwell Seaton on 01297 23939.

As Comfortable As Never Before, As Dynamic As Always

WITH the new generation of the A-Class, Mercedes-Benz reconciles the conflicting aims of sporty performance and enhanced comfort: With DYNAMIC SELECT the driver is able to change the car's characteristics in just seconds – at the touch of a button the A-Class drives in a particularly comfortable, sporty or efficient manner. Mercedes-Benz has also increased the range of available engines. The new efficiency champion is the 80 kW (109 hp) A 180 d with CO₂ emissions of 89 g/km. Also new to the range is the A 220 d 4MATIC. And with its dramatic design in the style of the successful MERCEDES-AMG PETRONAS Formula 1 team, the special "Motorsport Edition" model will particularly appeal to racing fans. The Mercedes-AMG A 45 4MATIC also benefits from the model facelift. With peak output of 280 kW (381 hp) and a maximum torque of 475 Nm, the entry-level model from Mercedes-AMG is the world's most powerful compact sports model. The revised gear ratios, aerodynamic fine-tuning and the new DYNAMIC SELECT driving modes raise overall performance to a higher level, underlining the claim to leadership in this market segment. The new-generation A-Class can be ordered from 3 July 2015. The first models will be in dealer showrooms at the end of September.

"2012 was a year of paradigm change in the compact class. The new A-Class was a radical departure from the preceding series. And a successful one: as the most progressive model in the compact class, the model series has done much to make the Mercedes-Benz brand more youthful. With this model facelift we are now meeting the wishes of many customers for even more comfort with no loss of dynamic performance," says Ola Källenius, member of the Daimler AG Board of Management responsible for Mercedes-Benz Cars Marketing & Sales. "In addition, with Apple® CarPlay® and MirrorLink® the A-Class has taken the next step for comprehensive and intuitive smartphone integration."

Striking lines, dynamically curved surfaces and coupé-like window lines characterise the exterior of the A-Class, following the design philosophy of sensual clarity. The form of the new, more arrow-shaped front bumper takes its lead strongly from the Concept A-CLASS (2011). With a diamond grille, new LED High Performance headlamps (optional extra; standard for A 45) and newly designed rear lights with exhaust tailpipes integrated into the bumper, the new generation emphasises the sportiness and dynamism of the successful compact class series.

The new MINI Clubman continues generation change

ANOTHER new chapter has opened in the re-generation of the MINI model family, with the debut of the new MINI Clubman.

Following the success of the re-energised MINI 3-door Hatch and the successful launch of the MINI 5-door Hatch, the new model offers customers a premium vehicle featuring the highest level of ride refinement ever seen in a MINI.

The car's much-loved signature design feature – its split rear doors – are retained, while accessibility and everyday usability are further enhanced thanks to four full-sized side doors. The resulting car is a powerful fusion of sleek lines, innovative touches and first-rate materials with generous space for five occupants, excellent luggage capacity and classic MINI driving characteristics.

With a more mature and sophisticated design, the new MINI Clubman's dimensions are larger than those of the previous generation MINI Clubman. It's also 270 mm longer and 73 mm wider than the MINI 5-door Hatch, with a wheelbase which is 100 mm larger. The boot has a volume of 360 litres, which can be extended to 1,250 litres by folding the rear seats flat.

The latest generation of MINI TwinPower Turbo Technology engines have been installed under the bonnet, with three units available from launch – the MINI Cooper Clubman, MINI Cooper D Clubman and MINI Cooper S Clubman. CO2 emissions are as low as 109g/km, with fuel economy of up to 68.9mpg.

New to the MINI brand is an 8-speed Steptronic transmission, available as an option on the MINI Cooper S Clubman and the MINI Cooper D Clubman. Exceptional handling comes courtesy of a suspension set-up which is unique to the new MINI Clubman.

Numerous features make their MINI brand debut on the new Clubman, included an electric parking brake, full electric seat adjustment and the optional MINI Yours Interior Styles with backlit door bezels.

The new MINI Clubman includes MINI's highly acclaimed Navigation System as standard on all models, exemplifying the high levels of standard equipment across the range. Furthermore, every MINI Clubman also benefits from the MINI Excitement Package as standard, which features a projection of the brand logo on to the ground beneath the driver's side door mirror when the car is opened and closed, as well as extended interior lighting.

Deaths on the road increase by 4 per cent in 2014

THE Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents (RoSPA) says more needs to be done to protect vulnerable road users after new figures revealed a rise in the number of deaths on Britain's roads.

The statistics released today by the Department for Transport show an increase in the number of people killed or seriously injured, in particular pedestrians, cyclists and motorcyclists, last year (2014) compared to 2013.

RoSPA is concerned as the figures show a four per cent rise in deaths to 1,775. Of particular worry is the number of vulnerable road users being killed or injured. Three-quarters of the increase in deaths were pedestrian casualties, meaning that last year one in four people killed on the road were pedestrians. There were also 16,727 child casualties in 2014 - up 6.2 per cent on the previous year.

Cyclists also still account for a disproportionately high number of casualties, with 113 killed in 2014. Worringly, there was a huge rise in the number of cyclists being seriously injured, from 3,143 to a total of 3,401. This number has been increasing almost every year since 2004.

Motorcyclist deaths rose by 2 per cent from 331 in 2013 to 339 in 2014, and there was an increase of more than 400 who were seriously injured, taking the number to 5,628 in 2014, a rise of 9 per cent. Overall motorcyclist casualties increased from 18,752 to 20,366, an increase of 9 per cent.

There were almost 200,000 casualties last year on Britain's roads - the first overall increase since 1997.

Traffic levels also rose by 2.4 per cent in 2014, which may account partly for the increase in deaths and injuries on our roads.

Kevin Clinton, head of road safety at RoSPA, said: "As our economy improves, we can expect traffic levels to continue to increase, so we must do everything we can to make sure this does not lead to even more increases in road crashes and casualties.

"The reductions in road death and injury in recent years will not automatically be sustained, without a continued focus on road safety. We must remain focussed on making our roads safer for everyone, and especially for people travelling on foot and by two wheels.

Local sport – cricket round-up

Somerset's championship progress continues

Chard and North Perrott through to County Cup semi-finals – Warry ton can't save Ilminster

LV COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

Hampshire v Somerset
(Ageas Bowl, June 21st – 24th)
Somerset 346 (T.Abell 88, J.Hildreth 76, M.Trescothick 53) & 64-1beat Hampshire 147 (C.Overtown 4-24, A.Thomas 3-38) & (following-on) 262 (G.Berg 86; C.Overtown 4-57, P.Trego 3-49) by nine wickets (Som 22pts Hants 3).

CAREER best match figures for in-form Craig Overtown of 8 for 81 was the highlight as Somerset made it back-to-back championship victories inside three days with a thumping nine-wicket win over Hampshire at their Southampton HQ.

After being asked to follow-on 199 in arrears the hosts tower-middle order summoned up some stubborn 2nd innings resistance.

Stand of 75 for the sixth wicket and 61 for the eighth ensured Somerset would have to bat for a second time. Openers Tom Abell (21no) and Marcus Trescothick (35) ensured their would be no alarms with their second half-century stand (57) of the match to see the Cidemen all-but over the line.

Twenty one year old Abell, now averaging 41 this season, has clearly impressed Trescothick who said after the game: "Tom is a pleasure to watch from the other end. He got runs in the first innings and was not out in the second. His fielding and catching were superb. If we could find 11 lads like him, we would have a brilliant side."

The Cidemen's skipper was also enthusing about Overtown who now has 28 championship wickets at a little over 15 to his name: "Craig has been outstanding. He was brilliant against Durham and brilliant in this game. In many respects he was the difference between the teams' attacks and took eight wickets and got more out of the wicket than anyone else."

NatWest T20

THERE were mixed fortunes for Somerset in their T20 campaign with a convincing win against Middlesex at Uxbridge on Friday but a last ball heart ache defeat against Glamorgan at Taunton on Sunday.

Jamie Overtown (2-44) and Tim Groenewald (3-27) carried over their fine form with the red ball and leg-spinners Max Waller claimed 2-27 as the Cidemen restrict Middlesex to 171 for 7.

But this was overhauled with some ease thanks to a superb unbeaten off 89 balls from Jim Allenby who put on 118 for the first wicket with Johann Myburgh (53). Once the latter fell Pete Trego (28no) joined Allenby to complete the nine-wicket rout.

Sunday brought – for Taunton – relatively low scoring affair against Glamorgan.

A fine 96 from Colin Ingram, against his previous county, helped the Welsh team to 170 for 4 with home skipper Alfonso Thomas going for 49 off his four overs.

The Somerset reply was a stuttering affair with Trego top-scoring with 39. But it wasn't until Groenewald (27no, including 3x6) and Jamie Overtown gave it the 'long handle' that they got close to snatching an unlikely victory.

But Groenewald erred by taking a single in the last over and new batsman Max Waller failed to find the fence off the last ball.

Upcoming fixtures (both);

Friday, July 3rd NatWest T20 Somerset v GLOUCESTER-SHIRE (5.30pm).
Sunday, July 5th LV=County Championship Somerset v SUSSEX (11am).

WEPL

ILMINSTER 1st XI's losing run continued with a 164-run defeat on their own turf at the hands of mid-tableers Corsham at the weekend.

The visitors batted first and posted 264 with Harry Montacute (2-32), Richard Elwood (2-34) and Sam Grinter (2-54) all striking twice.

But when their turn came round Ilminster struggled from the word go. Only four players reached double figures in a total of 100 with skipper Sam Spurway top-scoring with just 15. Ilminster 3pts Corsham 22pts

In Premier Two Reid Mawdsley's top score of the season just failed to inspire CHARD 1st XI in their pursuit of hosts Cheltenham's 262 for 8.

Mawdsley struck a fine 88 punctuated by nine boundaries and joined former Seaton team mate Alex Hunt (52) in a second wicket stand of 111 but Chard still fell 18 runs short on 244 for 8.

Earlier Tom Wright (3-29) and Hunt (2-47) had had most success with ball as Cheltenham recovered for 21 for 2.

Chard did however make it through to the Somerset

Major Cup semi-final after victory over Taunton Deane on Wednesday.

NORTH PERROTT slipped to second place in the Somerset Division despite squeezing home by five runs in a low-scoring encounter at Butleigh.

After being asked to bat first, a six-boundary 37 from Kiwi Brett Johnson was the highlight as Perrott were dismissed for just 84 in the 45th over.

But the small target proved to be just sufficient for the visitors whose heroes with the ball were Alex Eckland (5.2-3-5-4) and Gordon Whorlow (3-24) as Butleigh were hustled out for 79 in the 33rd over. Butleigh 7pts North Perrott 17pts.

North Perrott booked their place in the semi-finals of the Somerset Intermediate Cup by beating Taunton St Andrews at Willis Lane on Wednesday.

2nd XI Division Two – CHARD 2nds 110 for 3 beat Downend 2nds 108 by seven wickets – no details available. Chard 2nds 21pts Downend 2nds 2pts.

A Superb century from Jonny Warry proved to be in vain as ILMINSTER 2nds slipped to a 12-run reverse at Bedminster.

Opening bat Warry smashed 18 4s and a six on his way to 101 as Ilminster were dismissed for 203 in their pursuit of the hosts' 215 for 6 from their allotted 45 overs. At 164 for 1 victory was in sight – but when Warry fell at 172 the wheels fell off.

Earlier, Dan Vining was the pick of the visitors' attack taking 3 for 25 from his nine overs. Bedminster 20pts Ilminster 2nds 8pts.

HONITON

THE League's annual general meeting is scheduled for Monday, July 20th at Honiton Working Men's Club.

petanque honiton

All welcome

HONITON petanque club is holding an open day from 2pm to 5pm on Sunday, July 12th. when everyone can come and get free instruction from experienced players and try the game.

Petanque, or boules as it is often called, is growing rapidly in the UK and Honiton Petanque Club, which shares the Honiton Football and Cricket ground at Mountbatten Park in Ottery Moor Lane, opened this Spring and is already attracting a host of new members.

Club spokesman Chris Bigmore said: "The open day is a chance for people to come and try the game that is so popular in France, and we are not making a charge to attend. "Thanks to the support of Honiton Town Council, East Devon Council, Mountbatten Park, Honiton Sports and AG Signs we have all the equipment we need to loan to players.

"We play on specially prepared terrains in the UK and the new one at Mountbatten Park is an excellent new facility.

"We are now looking for new members who may be interested in joining a Devon League team in 2016, taking part in club competitions and challenge matches."

"You will have a chance to learn the basics – how to throw the ball accurately, the different types of shot and an idea of the tactics that are so important to understand.

"There is so much more to petanque than whose ball is closest to the jack. It is a game of strategy and a bit of luck. The Club would like to attract players of all ages as it is not just a game for older people."

The Club meets on Sunday mornings at 10.30am and Wednesday evenings at 7pm. These sessions last about two hours.

Annual membership is £20 which includes membership of the Mountbatten Social Club and playing fees. The first four sessions are free and under 18s get free membership, loan of boules is also free.

All Club sessions are open to new players. To find out more call Chris on 07815 710810, visit <http://petanquehoniton.btck.co.uk> email honiton-petanque@outlook.com.

SIDMOUTH Toucans Chicks held onto their unbeaten run and top spot with a victory over Howden Hawks who could not make up their deficit.

Chicks are now in a three-way battle for top spot.

With Flora Hastie playing well, they led from the start and, despite good play from Paige Faye for Howden, ran out winners 68–53.

With a game in hand Flamingos, also unbeaten, are the biggest threat to the top spot for Chicks. They proved too strong for JD Tyres who did just enough to earn a point from the game. With Lisa Pemberton in good form Flamingos had gained the lead by half way and although Tia Munt worked hard for JD they could not stop Flamingos who ran out winners by 50–26.

Blackdown Ladies are also in contention for a top two finish thanks to their win over close rivals for that place, Ford & Pentecost Panthers.

Panthers worked hard to overcome their starting deficit but the ladies, for whom Nicki Perry had another fine game, resisted the Panthers onslaught led by Isla quick to win by 49–43.

The final game of the evening saw Pixies up against Hi Q. Pixies led until half way but then Hi Q overcame their resistance to win by 49–34 thanks to good play from Lizi Bennett. Katherine Shahyiah was the pick of the Pixies.

CHARD ROAD RUNNERS

with Paul Masters
 CRR's were in action at the local 'TIN TIN TEN' a great off-road race from Tintinhall.

Martin Holly pushed hard to the line for an incredible 19th out of 132, following in his wake was Richard Cave who returned from injury to finish 33/132.

Colin Boarder in his first Tin Tin Ten set good pace to keep ahead of Sarah Atkins and Gavin Wyatt with a storming run to the line. The next CRR battle, with seconds between them, was between Helen Baxter and Matt Baker – the latter securing a PB just behind Helen.

Gary Wheaton was next crossing the line with Mel Boarder and Caroline Dismore just behind.

Lindsay Quinlan and Chan Chant rounded off an excellent CRR performance.

Next up nine runners headed over to Sydling St Nicholas for the WSR GIANTS HEAD MARATHON.

Setting the pace for CRR's Paul Masters followed by Anna Drew returning from injury with a fine result, followed Crossing the line together next were Nina Wagstaff and Bernie Genge before Addie Douglas and Andy Mear sprinted across the line together. Paul Fraser completed the CRR's line-up.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey
 HONITON Running Club members took part in the OVER THE HILL AND FARWAY 10K organised by Farway Primary School on 21st June.

The figure of eight loop includes a little climb up Warren Hill which has a total climb of 432 feet. This is completed within the first 3k of the race and the first male and female to the top are awarded a very well deserved prize for King and Queen of the Hill.

King of the Hill was awarded to the race winner a very fast young runner with a great running future ahead of him; Jake Smith in 37 minutes six seconds.

The Queen of the hill was a close tussle between Honiton's Suzanne Spiller and Florence Swan who were neck and neck for most of the hill – eventually experience prevailed over youth and Suzanne crested the hill first.

Once at the top and on flatter ground Flo passed Suzanne and she slowly pulled away and was first female in a fantastic time of 45:41.

Ben Stone, despite a chest infection, was first back for Honiton and 4th overall in 43:00.

Flo was next home for Honiton finishing in 8th with Suzanne not far behind, finishing 24 seconds later in 9th place.

Hadleigh Davies finished in a respectable 47:09 despite aggravating his calf injury in the process. Richard Harris whipped up the hill and eventually finished 10th in 47:23.

Vernon Gillard was 13th in 49:35, Bruce Strawberry followed in 14th with a time of 50:04.

Bernice Bastin completed the Honiton group finishing in 35th in 64:12. There were 40 runners.

The Honiton young guns we also out in force to run the fun run and the junior race.

Jasmine Stone was the first female on the junior race and finished in 17:40. Honiton Running Club's own BLACKDOWN BEAUTY took place last Saturday in perfect weather conditions.

The main routes were either 18 miles or 10 miles although there were other options.

Thanks to everyone who helped in any way but especially Jim Hill and family for giving up part of the farm for the day by providing the ideal base for the run including a barn for the post race barbecue. All money raised goes to Macmillan Cancer Support.

Keep an eye on the website www.honitonrc.com for the winter version – The Blackdown Beast due to be held in January.

 GRAHAM Newton won the men's over 60 prize, finishing in 12th overall, taking 47:05 in the recent CARY CANTER 10K multi terrain race. The race was won by Kieran Young from Wells City Harriers in 41:22.

AVR's competed well in the FARWAY 10K and the slightly shorter races for youngsters known collectively as 'OVER THE HILL AND FARWAY'.

The 10k course starts with a very challenging hill and invites runners to compete for 'King and Queen of the Hill' as well as for the usual first male and female finishers.

AVR results (10K): Florence Swan was the first lady home in 45:41, Eleanor Wood 3rd lady 47:22; Carol Austin 4th lady, 51:34; Angela Kerr 9th lady, 55:19 and Samantha Miller 10th lady, 56:48.

Jake Smith ran superbly to be the first man home and 'King of the Hill' in a magnificent 37:06.

Joshua Hobson was 5th, 43:45; Rupert Pady 7th, 45:14; Lawrence Power 8th, 47:00; Phil Bayliss 12th, 48:35; Robin Britton 16th, 54:23; Martin Kerr 22nd, 68:31 and Robert Kerr 23rd, 69:11. AVR member Rick Wood was race referee.

Many congratulations to AVR youngsters Mia Bartlett, Holly Eyre and Poppy Tooze who came 2nd, 3rd and 4th respectively in the intermediate race, and to Caitlin Tooze who came 6th in the junior race.

THIS week brought the annual Mixed Invitation Competition organised by Max Pipe.

A number of members from clubs in the area were invited to enjoy a social mixed day of golf.

The winners of the competition with 46 points was home member Allan Seager playing with his guest Glynda Board from Axe Cliff who retained the Gordon Longhurst Plate.

In second place was Club Captain Stewart Slater with his guest Jaques Wales from Looe with 43 points.

Also on 43 (but beaten on countback) were Ron Graham and his guest Penny Weston from Looe.

There were no two's recorded and so a card draw came into play.

Nearest the pin for Ladies was won by Gina Redman from The Warren and for the Men it was Honiton member, Bill Eaton.

Ladies Section

The format this week was two ball better ball – but on the 6th, 12th and 18th, both scores would count.

On another hot, sunny day, Anne Davies & Liz Rogers came in first with 48 points.

The next three places were tied on 46 and had to be settled on countback with Diana Gee & Linda Northover in second place, Jane Watts & Janet Hughes third and Olwen Eaton & Sharon Dacre in fourth.

In the 10-hole competition, Daphne Ayland & Joy Kerr came in first with 19 points.

Seniors Section

SIXTY two seniors competed for the Ron Blatchford trophy in a Stableford format.

The winner was Tony Williams who was top of Division One with 37 points, beating Tom Tunnicliffe on count back.

Also in Division One, Jim Wallis and Ted Chandler had 35 points followed by Alan Pollock and John Vessey on 33.

Tom Tunnicliffe was top of Division Two and John Chew was runner-up on 35.

The last prizes were taken by Brian Morrison, Peter Blake and George Smith on 34.

weekend Clare Hansford travelled to northern Scotland to take part in the HIGHLAND CROSS, a 50-mile coast-to-coast duathlon (20 mile run, 30 bike) from Kintail on the west to Beaulieu on the east.

A stream of buses transported competitors to Loch Morich on the west coast where typical Scottish weather of drizzle and midgets awaited.

The first few miles over rough track allowed competitors to settle in before climbing the 1000ft pass behind the Five Sisters of Kintail – a single file scramble to the waterfalls of Beinn Fhada with an occasional sheer drop to the right and warnings of 'Injury Risk'. This was followed by several miles of rough, undulating hill track through peaty bogs and frequent water crossings.

The scenery was stunning, but the nature of the terrain made it too risky to sight-see, especially as energy levels dipped.

The transition point was a welcome sight, the run had taken 2:55:00, and Clare was currently 6th lady. Then it was straight out on the unfamiliar bike, all on-road.

Clare was delighted to finish 71st position, 3rd Lady and 1st over 45 Lady in 4:20:00.

On Sunday Luke Reed took on the UK HALF IRONMAN 70.3 at Wimblesball Lake. Luke had a good 1.2mile swim in the lake, completing in 30.40.

Exiting the Water it was clear that the heavens had opened and they were in for a rough time on the Bike. With 5000ft of climb the 56-mile course is hard enough on its own without driving rain, and. Luke eventually finished in 3.21:43. On to the three-lap run and Luke put in a good run finishing in 1:41:59.

This gave an overall time of 5:41:19 and 181st out of 1500 finishers.

Kirsty Bate was the first

AVR home in the Torbay Half Marathon finishing 318th in 1:43:01. Angela Kerr had a fine race finishing 2nd lady over 55, 673rd overall in 1:56:11 with husband Martin in 1,286th spot taking 2:22:53.
